

REV GROUP BUS BUSINESS, ELDORADO NATIONAL, FUEL CELL BUSES NOW CERTIFIED FOR INCENTIVE FUNDING

Feb. 12th, 2019

RIVERSIDE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- REV Group (NYSE: REVG) a manufacturer of industry-leading specialty vehicle brands, has announced that its Eldorado National (ENC) Brand of transit bus has received certification from the California Air Resources Board (ARB) on its 40' 2019 ENC Axess Fuel Cell (FC) bus. This bus is now eligible for the California Hybrid and Zero-Emission Truck and Bus Voucher Incentive Project (HVIP). California transit operators purchasing this make and model bus can receive a voucher for $300,000 per bus.

The HVIP program was developed to help speed up the deployment of low-emissions hybrid and zero-emissions trucks and buses, along with vehicles equipped with low NOx engines by helping fleets purchase these advanced technology vehicles with funding support.

The 2019 ENC Axess FC bus is available to help cities meet their emission targets providing a range of 300+ miles with zero emissions, water and heat are the only emissions. The USA designed and built bus has more than 1,000,000 miles of transit validated service using the BAE Systems electric propulsion system currently on more than 10,000 buses worldwide. In October 2018, SunLine Transit in Thousand Palms, California purchased five ENC Axess FC buses and was the first to receive the $300,000 incentive for each zero-emission bus. For those interested in fuel cell bus technology or this voucher program contact Oscar Pardinias, Eldorado National at (805) 338-1867, oscar.pardinias@eldorado-ca.com.
