

REV GROUP FIRE BRAND FERRARA CONTRIBUTES TO WATER FLOW VOLUME IN MUTUAL AID EXERCISE THAT BREAKS WORLD RECORD

Aug. 29th, 2017

MILWAUKEE--(BUSINESS WIRE)--REV Group Fire Brand, a specialty vehicle brand, announced today that it has contributed to a new world record for water flow volume in a mutual aid exercise of the New Jersey Urban Search and Rescue (NJUSAR) team.

The big water flow exercise provided an opportunity to break a world record at Berth 25 near the inter-lake connection. The exercise was a collaboration for the event between the FDNY Fire Boat "3" and the REV Group Fire Brand emergency responders.

"It's an honor to participate in the performance of this exercise and to be a part of this event. We will be a stronger more

These drills provide opportunities for collaboration with other departments and responders. The event showcased the mutual aid collaboration of NJ-NY area emergency responders. Chief Fred Fretz, spokesperson for NJ UASI said, "Having a strong working relationship between industry and municipal fire departments is critical to effective emergency response."

The mutual aid exercise involved more than 100 emergency responders and was made possible by a partnership of the New Jersey UASI Task Force with local industry including Phillips 66, International Matrix Tank Terminals, and fire departments from several counties in New Jersey as well as New York City, including Elizabeth Fire Department, Union Fire Department, Linden Fire Department, Roselle Fire Department, Rahway Fire Department, Milburn Fire Department, Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, Kearny Fire Department, Kenilworth Fire Department, FDNY and the NJ Division of Fire Safety.
