

REV GROUP NAMES DEAN NOLDEN CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Jan. 20th, 2016

MIAMI, Fla. (January 20, 2016) – REV Group, Inc. (REV), a leading manufacturer of motor vehicles for commercial, fire & emergency and recreation markets, announced today that Dean Nolden has been named Chief Financial Officer (CFO). Nolden will report to Tim Sullivan, President and CEO of REV.

For the past 17 years, Nolden has worked with the Manitowoc Company in Manitowoc, WI. He held positions of increasing responsibility in the finance area, serving most recently as Executive Vice President Finance for Manitowoc's Crane segment and interim CFO for its Foodservice business. Prior to that, he was Manitowoc's VP of Finance & Treasurer. Prior to joining Manitowoc, Dean was an auditor with PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC) in Milwaukee, WI. Nolden has vast accounting, treasury, banking, public markets, as well as extensive international experience. He graduated with a Bachelor's of Science degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and received his MBA from Marquette University in Milwaukee.

"Dean is a seasoned executive who will be an important piece of our leadership team," Sullivan said. "His vast experience with accounting, treasury, manufacturing operations, and mergers and acquisitions is extremely valuable for REV right now. I'm looking forward to working with him."

Nolden expressed an eagerness to begin in his new role.

"I am excited about the future of REV Group and the opportunities that lie ahead," Nolden said. "I look forward to working with the entire REV team to support achievement of our vision and ultimately create opportunities for our employees and value for our stakeholders."

