The NTT IndyCar Series REV Group Grand Prix will take place on Saturday, June 20-23, where an international lineup of drivers will compete on one of the world's most revered road courses. NICS Championship driver, Josef Newgarden, will return to defend his 2018 Road America win in a REV branded Team Penske Dallara/Chevrolet. "Safety is paramount at our track and in this sport, and the fire and medical team are critically important. Our award winning Road America Safety Team, which is entirely first responders, have saved many lives over the years, and we are thrilled that the REV Group Grand Prix gives us the opportunity to recognize all first responders on and off the track," said Mike Kertscher, Road America's President and General Manager.
