

REV GROUP FIRE BRAND, E-ONE INTRODUCES THE NEW TITAN 4X4 ARFF

Feb. 28th, 2018

OCALA, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- E-ONE, a global leader in emergency response vehicles, proudly introduces E-ONE's new TITAN® 4x4 Aircraft Rescue and Firefighting (ARFF) vehicle at the 2018 ARFF Leadership Conference in Orlando, Fla. This is the first configuration in a completely new line of ARFF products. The new TITAN® series has a striking aggressive stance with innovative styling features and offers industry-leading performance in several key measurable categories, such as acceleration, braking, dynamic stability and pumping performance.

The E-ONE TITAN® 4x4 ARFF vehicle features:

- POWER with an available 400-hp V-8 engine and 4.1-second acceleration
- CONTROL with a variable-rate steering system and dual calipers on each wheel
- STORAGE with an underbody storage system
- KNOCKDOWN with a quick-disassembly calibration system and a rear-mounted turret
- PAYLOAD capacity up to 10,000 pounds
- SERVICEABILITY with rear access to the vehicle as well as front access
- OPTIONS with the ability to add a rear-mounted pump system

With a core focus on safety and performance, the TITAN® provides customers a more advanced way to respond, the TITAN® provides more than ever before.

Customers have recognized the advanced features and have placed orders for the newly designed TITAN®, including a recent nine unit order from Corporacion Peruana de Aviacion Civil S.A. (CORPAC).

"The new TITAN® 4x4 is truly an amazing work, combining performance with robust firefighting systems in a revolutionary design not often seen on vehicles of this size," said Matt Reda, E-ONE's Global Product Manager. "The anticipation and customer response has already resulted in new orders. E-ONE is very proud of the teamwork and commitment that drove this project from recognition of worldwide customer demands to engineering conceptual designs and daily interaction with the program team. We are confident that the new TITAN® offers technologies and functionality that, moving forward, will raise the expectations of buyers across the globe in the ARFF market sector."
