REV Group to provide access to top RV brands and rental services through Outdoorsy's RV Rental Marketplace

MILWAUKEE--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- REV Group (NYSE: REVG), a manufacturer of industry-leading specialty vehicle brands and a leading provider of parts and services, has announced a partnership between REV Rentals and Outdoorsy to offer RV rentals through Outdoorsy's RV marketplace. The partnership with REV Group is the first of its kind for Outdoorsy – working directly with a manufacturer and rental vehicle supplier to bring RV units to the Outdoorsy marketplace.

Outdoorsy has brought the growing “sharing economy” to road trip and RV travel, making it safe and easy for travelers of all experience levels to rent high-quality RVs. The Outdoorsy platform connects RV renters to RV owners, in a community-driven marketplace. Outdoorsy handles all phases of the rental transaction, including availability calendar, reservations, deposits, bank-secure payments as well as insurance coverage and roadside assistance.

The ease of digital communication along with the complete suite of services offered on Outdoorsy is attractive to RV renters of all types, but specifically appeals to younger audiences, first-time RVers and international travelers.

“We’re excited to partner with Outdoorsy to bring our RV products into a completely new and growing channel,” commented Ann Lehman, Vice President of REV Rentals. “The scale, ease and services that Outdoorsy provides are a perfect fit for building awareness for REV Rentals and for connecting with new customers.”

Through Outdoorsy, REV Rentals will be featuring high-end Class A and Class C motorhome rentals from REV Group's Fleetwood RV and Holiday Rambler brands. All REV Rental units have luxury appointments such as exterior entertainment centers, kind-sized beds and residential refrigerators – and all RVs are current model year with low mileage and easy to operate. Units will be available nationwide as REV Rentals continues to grow its network of rental locations.
