Throughout 2022, Ian Somerhalder will be traveling the country in a luxury Fleetwood RV Discovery® LXE 40M model.

Fleetwood RV is an award-winning brand and a part of REV Group®, Inc. Fleetwood is one of the most established names in the RV industry, known for its quality design.

The "Made in America" aspect of Fleetwood RV is important to Somerhalder. Plus, the Midwestern farm fields that grow the corn for his Brother's Bond bourbon are just down the road from Decatur where Fleetwood RVs are made.

The family says the convenience of setting their own schedule and the ease of simply pulling into a town in their comfortable home on wheels are two significant advantages of traveling in a Class A motorcoach. With the introduction of Brother's Bond bourbon, Somerhalder has a full travel schedule planned for the year. He appreciates the fact his family will be able to join him and the freedom they'll have to enjoy the beauty of the country at their own pace.

The Fleetwood RV Discovery LXE 40M is packed with luxurious amenities. The coach has heated porcelain tile flooring throughout, an electric fireplace, on-demand hot water, quartz countertops, three LED TVs (two on the interior and one on the exterior), and a spacious eat-in kitchen with stainless-steel appliances, including a full-size French door refrigerator, induction cooktop, convection microwave, and Fisher Paykel dishwasher.

The model features 1 ½ baths and a large master suite with a king-sized articulating bed, two wardrobe closets, a full bathroom with his and hers sinks, a glass enclosed hand-tiled porcelain shower with a bench, and a stacked
