American Coach, a luxury motorhome brand that's part of REV Recreation Group, Inc., has added a new American Eagle floorplan* that has been custom designed exclusively with Fuel Your Wander influencers Kris and Hillary.

The MY26 45FW American Eagle Fuel Your Wander motorhome has the Cummins® ISX15 605 horsepower engine and an Allison 4000 Series™ six-speed transmission, plus, the new Freightliner Liberty Bridge handling ensures a smoother, easier drive. The unit has three slides, sleeps two, built-in massagers in the front seats, and features a studio bar with larger window, a double pull-out pantry, and fireplace cabinet with a pull-out workstation. There is 1 ½ bath and the full bath has dual rectangular sinks as well as room for a stackable washer and dryer and a full wardrobe in the back. The interior has two-tone cabinetry, a custom backsplash and plank flooring throughout in Aspenwood Ash, while the exterior has a special custom design selected by Fuel Your Wander that is called Revolution.

"We at American Coach strive to provide exceptional quality and innovations that exceed industry standards. Our goal has always been to provide luxury coach floorplans that are full of features and are functional for our consumers," said Doug Miller, Sales Director, American Coach. "Thanks to our partnership with Fuel Your Wander, the 45FW fits right in as the newest member of our American Eagle line up."

“We’ve toured countless RVs and wanted to custom design our own motorhome to fit our lifestyle and needs to live in it full time. Over the past year, we worked closely with the American Coach design team to determine the finishes and fabrics that not only fit our aesthetic, but a layout with plenty of features and extra storage that suits our nomadic life,” said Kris and Hillary. “We are thrilled that consumers will be able to purchase the model that we helped design!”

Consumers can purchase the American Eagle 45FW now.*
